Dear Friends,

Coming to Canada for our annual January visit to enjoy the snow seemed a little unnecessary this year: In fact, we arrived in Toronto airport to find less snow than we had left behind in Glasgow! Coming further north, to where we stay near Owen Sound, we did find that the snow lived up to expectations, as, fortunately, did the efficiency of the snow clearance! As I set out yesterday morning at 8 a.m. to preach on the Marriage at Cana in the tiny village church, which is half of our parish here, the landscape could hardly have been more beautiful. An overnight mist had covered the trees with tiny ice crystals, and in the morning sun, everything glistened as if covered with diamonds.

The day before had been the funeral of our Parish Deacon; it was a wonderful gathering to celebrate the life of a very fine woman. It seemed particularly appropriate to turn to the beginning of Jesus' ministry in John's gospel, where we learn very little about marriage, but a lot about parties. As John begins Jesus' earthly ministry at a wedding reception, he ends it not far from Cana with a barbecue on the beach, and takes in several dinner and lunch parties on the way. All of the labour and suffering in the gospel is wrapped up in a message of joyful parties! And so it should be with us too. We have all been shocked by the devastation in Haiti, as we have been and should have been by the wars the injustice and the sorrow of our world. We do not live in a perfect world, and we are not perfect people. The message of Jesus is not that we should either ignore or be overwhelmed by all this, but that by sharing in his joy, we will be empowered to help overcome the evil about us.

The life of a congregation, like the Gospel of John, has its ups and downs and argument and suffering do come in between the parties. When we were asked at the start of the stewardship campaign, "What does the congregation do really well?" My immediate answer was "Parties!" Keep it up! The Vestry and search committee have worked very hard, and all looks set for a great new ministry here as Judith Walker comes as your new Rector. One thing I'm sure of is that the celebration party at the Institution will be a great one!

Love
Bob

NEW RECTOR

As I announced on 20 December, subject to the usual disclosure procedures, the Reverend Judith Walker, curate to the Penhill Benefice in Wensleydale within the Church of England Diocese of Ripon and Leeds, has accepted our invitation to become our next Rector. Judith will bring particular contemplative, ecumenical, pastoral and leadership skills. Her own continuing learning is central to her own spiritual and ministerial development. She expects to be joining us early in May.

I would like to take this opportunity to thank most sincerely all those involved, for the time, care and commitment they devoted to the appointment process. There are thrilling and exciting times ahead!

THANK YOU

The East Lothian Amnesty International Group would like to thank the members of Holy Trinity who signed cards for prisoners of conscience as part of Amnesty's Greetings Card Campaign. A total of 108 cards were sent from East Lothian. Thanks also for donations towards the cost of postage, the sum collected in Holy Trinity paid for all the postage.

The Group meets on the 3rd Thursday of each month in the library; more information can be obtained from Martin Lugton who is the Group Secretary. (Tel 825101)

5th January, 2010

Dear Jim,

I would like to take the opportunity to wish you and the entire congregation of Holy Trinity Parish Church a very happy and prosperous New Year. Also I would like to thank you for your continued support for the Christmas gift scheme.

The 2009 gift scheme was a great success with approximately two hundred children receiving gifts.

I would like to thank you personally on behalf of all of the children that received gifts through the scheme. Christmas day was made all the more special for these children due to the kindness and generosity of the congregation of Holy Trinity Parish Church.

As in previous years I will be donating the surplus gifts to a deserving cause. A couple of my colleagues support our troops serving abroad with the parcels for troop's scheme that you may have heard of. I have donated the surplus gifts to the army family's centres that operate within the army camps. So the children of our troops serving abroad have benefited indirectly through the gift scheme.

In the six years that I have been involved in the scheme the 2009 was by far the best supported, the quality and quantity of the gifts donated was excellent.

Kindest regards,

Colin O'Flaherty

Some comments from the prisoners.

From Brian

This is just a short note to say thank you very much for the gifts which were given to my family (kids). This thankyou comes from my family as well as myself. Thank you

From Stevie

Thank you for organising the gift scheme I did not no that I would be able to give my children a Christmas present when I was sent to prison thank you to all the people that give you the presents.

From Andy

I would like to take the opportunity to thank you and all the people that donated gifts to the gift scheme. It was great to be able to give my children a present at this time of year.

From Paul D.

I cannot thank you enough for giving me the chance to five my family a Christmas present. Thank you very to the people that you collect the gifts from.

From Paul W.

Thank you very much for the Christmas gifts that you gave to my family it was very special. The children love the toys that they got. I am very grateful to the people that donate the gifts to you. I would like you to wish them a merry Christmas and a happy new year from me. Thanks again.

From CW

I am writing to express my thanks for all the gifts we were given for the children. I've been in now for five years so this is my fifth Christmas and the first time I have taken advantage of this scheme. I can't believe how good it felt for me just to see the joy on the children's faces knowing they were getting gifts from me. It has really cheered my up this year and can not thank everyone enough. So I would like to thank you and thank you on behalf of the children. They were delighted with everything that they got.

Fairtrade Fortnight

At the Fairtrade stall on Sunday, 17 January, we took a gratifying £98.35. Thank you to all who supported it.

22 February to 7 March has been designated 'Fairtrade Fort-night'. We are hoping to mark it with a special Service on one of these three Sundays. We intend following it with a 'Tea Party' in the hall, supplementing our usual coffee and tea with Fairtrade biscuits.

Watch the weekly pew leaflet for an update.

CONCERT - 10 JAN - CANCELLED

Sadly the weather caused the Mozart evening to be postponed. Thanks to all who bought advance tickets (and who I hope have retrieved their cash by now) and to Philip and all his players for the thought of supporting our organ fund. We hope they resurrect the concert sometime in the Spring when the weather improves.

TRINITY CENTRE FILM CLUB A.G.M. AND FILM

Owing to the cancellation of the A.G.M. In January because of the weather, the postponed A.G.M will be held on Thursday 4th February, 2010

At 2.00pm

It will be followed by the film which was to have been shown in January.

Miss Pettigrew lives for a day.

There will be tea and biscuits and chat to follow.

What good is it to me
By Charles de Foucauld

What good is it to me
if this eternal birth of the divine Son
takes place unceasingly
but does not take place within myself?

And what good is it to me
if Mary is full of grace and if I am not also full of grace?

What good is it to me
for the Creator to give birth to a Son
if I do not also give birth to him
in my time and my culture?
then, is the fullness of time:
When the Son of God is begotten in us.
In this birth you will discover all blessing.
But neglect this birth
and you neglect all blessing.
Tend only to this birth in you
and you will find there
all goodness and all consolation,
all delight, all being and all truth.

Amen

CHURCH LENDING LIBRARY

We told you of the intention to set up a library during the summer. Now Vicky Fletcher has catalogued and categorised all the books in our collection which have all been donated by members. She has made an inventory in a large book which has all the volumes listed by subject/category complete with a short resume. A mighty labour.

A second small book is for recording the "Outs" and "Ins" you should note your borrowings and returns. It has been a huge effort to put this collection together and to catalogue. It deserves your support for no other reason.

CHURCH FLOWERS HELP

We are looking for new volunteers to join our happy band of flower arrangers. It does not have to be ladies, men are very welcome, even teenage members can join. If interested please contact either Christine or Margaret Glass on Haddington 01620 822965 Thank you

Sunday: Monthly Soup and Pudding lunches

First a big thank you to all who provided soups and puddings last year, and all who joined us for the fellowship of those occasions, and helped to make them such a success.

We hope to continue them this year following “All Age services” beginning Sunday, 7th February, 14th March (Mothering Sunday), 4th April, (Easter Day).

A list is at the back of church if you are able to provide either soup or pudding for one of these days. Please sign the list, and do try to join us for lunch.

Diocesan Conferences, 6th and 27th February

Holy Trinity are hosting these, and hope to provide soup, and teas and coffees. If you can make soup for either of these days it would be greatly appreciated. Also if you have an hour to spare from 10.30am – 11.30 am or from 12.30 pm – 1.30 pm to help serve, please contact Margaret Fairbairn either at church or by phone or Haddington 825472

Lent 2010

LENT is a period of 40 days, perhaps patterned on Jesus's 40 days in the wilderness, a period of spiritual discipline observed by the church since the late 3rd/early 4th Century AD. It has traditionally been kept by Christians as a period of Fasting, Almsgiving and Prayer. Initially Lent was a period of preparation and training for Baptism at Easter and we in Holy Trinity once had the great joy of welcoming a new Christian who was baptised on Easter Day.

In this congregation we support our Bishop's Lent Appeal, details of which will be available in the next edition of Gloria, as a focus for giving to God in the form of money, though it is likely that some of us find other ways of doing this. We make our own decisions re the time and patterns of prayer we use, and in Holy Week we join with other Christians in Haddington for prayer in varied patterns. We have over the years set aside time to deepen our faith by gathering in small groups in either the daytime or evening, mainly in Haddington though also in Gifford.

This year the team proposes three options and will put notices out at the back of church to see whether any of these are appropriate to our needs. It is also possible that some of us may wish to propose other ideas.

The York course for Lent. We have used these before and found them profitable

The Lord's prayer, using a small book written by Sister Wendy and Archbishop Rowan Williams

A series of Biblical Posters from Turvey Abbey to stimulate our imaginations and encourage our shared reflection and prayer

We recognise that it will not be possible to meet each person's wishes at the desired time, but will do our best to be helpful!

With this month's magazine you will find an envelope in which we hope will be placed donations towards the cost of producing Gloria. We would be grateful for whatever you feel the magazine is worth to you.
